About us

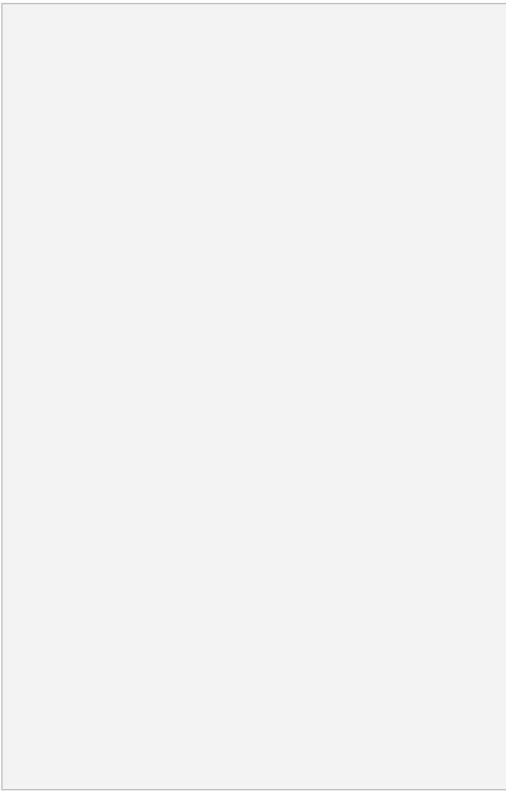

a versatile collection of unique laminates that are brought together to create alluring spaces. We understand that each space has its peculiar aura and generalizing the same would exterminate its exclusiveness; hence we create each laminate design to be different. We source inspiration from different elements of nature and antiquities found back in the yesteryears and one can get the glimpses of the same in the collection. To address the tastes of people coming from different backgrounds, we have maintained variety in terms of polishes and finishes offered. So prepare to explore out of the box concepts brought to life on each page.
